Obituary

Tom Enyimah Ansah was born in Accra, Ghana on September 11th, 1981.

He lived in Ghana throughout his childhood and attended St. Augustine's College in Cape Coast, Ghana, for his secondary school education. He briefly attended Takoradi Poly, where he studied statistics before joining his parents in Colorado Springs, Colorado, U.S.A. He began his college education at Pikes Peak Community College in the Springs. He then transferred to New Jersey Institute of Technology where he obtained his Bachelors in Civil Engineering. He began working for several High Profile Construction Companies such as The Brockwell Group and finally The McCloud Group before his passing.

He passed away on Monday, March 13th, 2017.

Tom was a soft spoken, well-loved individual. Generally with a smile on his face, he was kind and respectful to anyone and everyone he came in contact with.

Gone way too soon, he will be missed by many and his entire family.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
