Kassim Hayes was born July 7, 1999 in New Brunswick, New Jersey to Darnell Hayes and Tanisha Washington of Plainfield, New Jersey. He was a student at the Plainfield High School in Plainfield, New Jersey. Prior to that, he was a resident and student in Henderson, North Carolina where he spent six years of his life. In his younger years Kassim was an avid lover of football, and played for the Plainfield Pop Warner Cardinals. Throughout his life he enjoyed playing video games, hanging with his friends, making people laugh, and enjoying a good laugh himself.

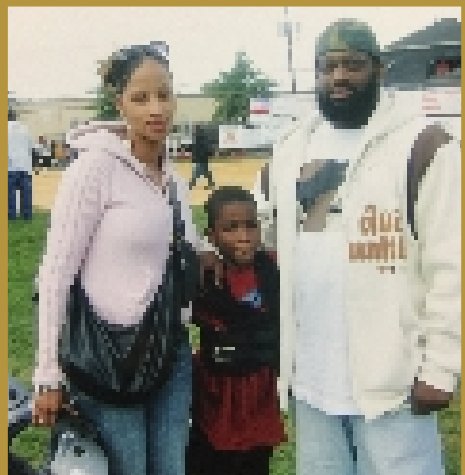

On April 4, 2017 at the tender age of 17, Kassim walked into the arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. He will always be loved and greatly missed by everyone who knew him. He is preceded in death by his maternal grandparents Kassim Washington and Carrie Sterling, paternal grandfather Frankie Hayes Sr. uncle Rodney Sterling, aunt Mona Sterling, cousins James "Raheem" Sterling, Mi'Asia Seawright, and Michael Sterling, and a dear friend Talik Harris.

Kassim leaves to cherish his memory: his mother Tanisha Washington, father Darnell Hayes both of Plainfield NJ, grandmother Carolyn Hayes of Plainfield NJ, adopted parent Sharita Harris of Henderson, NC, brother Kassir Hayes of Henderson NC, sister Kassiah Hayes of Henderson NC, maternal uncles James "Jimmy" Sterling and Leon Sterling of Plainfield NJ, paternal uncles Frankie Hayes Jr. and Anthony Hayes of Plainfield NJ, his beloved aunt Ann "Marie" Sterling of Plainfield NJ, and a host of cousins, other relatives, and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
