Obituary

Lorraine Green was born on September 30, 1939 in Ellerville, Georgia to Lola Dell Wallace and Rastus Wallace.

She entered into eternal rest on April 5, 2017 at Newark Beth Israel Hospital.

Lorraine worked for many years as a machine mechanic at the Bank of New York.

Lorraine loved going out and joining her girlfriends to play bingo. What a fun time they all had together. She said if I'm playing bingo, I'm alright!

Lorraine had the joy of helping her son Kevin with his business. She enjoyed cooking making sure he had a meal after a hard days work. When asked about Kevin she would say "he is somewhere on one of those trucks" shaking her head.

She was also overjoyed to find a church she could call home in First Bethel Baptist Church.

Lorraine leaves to cherish her memories: one son, Kevin Green. one daughter, Rafael Wallace (Vincent). one grandson, VJ Taylor. two brothers: Tyrone Wallace and MacArthur Wallace. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

She was predeceased by seven siblings: Lillian Bell Gunter, Willie Terry Wallace, Henry Wallace, Rastus Wallace, Curtis Wallace, Grintal Jackson and Rita Walker.

To My Family and Friends

When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today;
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
I knew how much you loved me, as much as I loved you,
And each time you think of me I know you'll miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without, me, please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name and took me by my hand;
And said my place was ready in heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
Don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart.
