Obituary

Julia Elizabeth Morris was born on January 5, 1941 in Harlem Hospital to the late Theodore and Matilda Morris. She was the second of three children.

Julia was educated in the New York City Public School System. While living in Harlem on 131st her house was the place to be because she had all the kids and always had the good food. She enjoyed the company of her family and the neighborhood kids and they loved her. She had such a big heart. Several years later she became a nurses aide and home health aide and worked in the field until her retirement over 20 years later.

She enjoyed going to Atlantic City with her children, Annette and Shor. Julia loved playing pity pat and bingo with her kids and grand kids. She didn't mind taking money from her grand kids. She always said "if they're old enough to play they're old enough to lose. They always got a kick out of that. She enjoyed going to her kid's backyard cookouts and dancing to the old school tunes. She did those same dances her and her sister Mavis used to do back in the 70's. She was so full of life and very independent until the sickness took a toll on her.

In 2012, she moved from Harlem, NY to Rahway, New Jersey close to her daughter, Sheila Shockley but she always went back to her old neighborhood or "around the Block" as we would call it. She had so much love for the people of 131st Street and would try to attend the yearly 131st block parties with her children. Julia loved her children and grandchildren but she especially love her sons and they truly loved and cherished her until the end. Before the end of her life she gave her life to Christ and accepted him as her Lord and Savior.

She departed this life on April 6, 2017 at highlands Care one Rehab and Nursing Home after a short illness.

She was predeceased in death by her companion, Chauncey Alston and two daughters, Matilda Morris and Beverly and her brother, Theodore Morris Jr.

Julia was dearly loved and will be sorely missed. She leaves to cherish her memories her children: Ronald, Annette (Warren Sr.), Bernard (Robin), Matilda (deceased), Sheila (Greg), Beverly (deceased) and Chauncey "Shor" (Tia), one sister Mavis Morris, one brother Theodore (deceased) Grandsons: Warren Jr., Tyrell (Tanya), Jamel, Brian, David, Derrick, Stephon, Devon, Malik, Cameron, Granddaughters: Angela, Shadae, Lenora, Carla, Briya, Tiana, Kennya, Shana, Alana, Niya, Great grand sons: Tyrell Jr, Jamel Jr, and Poseidon, Great granddaughters: Tierra "Nu-Nu", Nevaeh, Marie, Erin, Priscilla, her niece: Phyllis, grand nieces: Mia, Lisa Mo, Danielle, Shamia, nephew: Darryl "Geno", grand nephew: Darryl Jr, Gene, Donell, her cousin: Doris Lango Leak and all of her other cousins and the 131st family and friends.

Precious Memories

Come To Me

*God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered "Come to me"
The days of toil and nights of pain
The weary hours have passed
The patient gentle worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Day and night we stood by her
And saw her in pain,
Anxiously awaiting her cure
But our waiting was in vain.
God who knoweth all things best
Eased her suffering, gave her rest
She is gone but not forgotten,
Never will our memories fade
Sweetest thoughts of her will ever linger
Round the place where she rests.*
