Obituary

Timothy Boyd was born in Wetumpka, Alabama on March 12, 1949 by a Mid-wife, named Janie Williams. His mother was Mary Lou Boyd and his father was Eddie Lessears. He was the only son of five children. His sister names were Elaine, Rebecca, Christine, and Helen. When he was born he was mistakenly named Thessalonian by the Mid-wife who delivered him. His siblings still call him “Thess”.

When Timothy was 10 years old, his mother moved to Brooklyn, NY. He attended J.H.S, and high school in Brooklyn. In the late 60’s he joined the Nation of Islam and a became Muslim. He met Carol Armstrong in the Nation of Islam. They Married and had four children named Taleek, Tasmeeer, Tareesha, and Talydgeeia who call him “Poppy”. They eventually divorced but, became friends in their ladder years.

He was hard working. He worked as a superintendent in building maintenance. In the late 1990’s he went back to school and became a Computer System Engineer and service Technician. Then he opened his own computer servicing business in Brooklyn. In his ladder years retired after closing his business.

He valued peace, truth, fairness, and justice. He like old school R&B music, quality food, clothes, and living. He liked to laugh and make others laugh. He always had a word of advice that was uplifting, wise, and peaceful. If you greeted him with As-salamu alaykum "peace be upon you" he would respond Wa alaykumu as-salam "And unto you peace". If you asked him “How you doin’?” he would respond “six of one and half a dozen of the other” which means the same as last time, okay, but it really don’t even matter.

On April 18, 2017, after living a full life, he departed us,
on to peace by merciful hand of God.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
