Obituary

Jennice Duckworth age 42 passed away peacefully in her apartment on Friday November 4, 2016.

She was born December 5, 1973 to George Duckwork and Hyacinth Sterling in Kingston, Jamaica.

Migrating to the states at the age of 19 she graduated from Essex County College Nursing Program and became a CNA. She worked at Saint Barnabas Medical Center for 9 years.

She was a loving mother of four children and a close friend to many. On her spare time, she was always reading the bible and watching preaching ceremonies on YouTube. She was a Christian and God fearing women. She loved to go to church and prayed for/with people in their time of need. She was a kind spirit and loved helping others even if it meant putting herself last. She was a person with good faith and always had a positive attitude.

She survived four children, Shanique Henry, Tajay Pusey, Imani Maxwell, Anthony Maxwell, her parents George Duckwork and Hyacinth Sterling and three other siblings Corey Lowe, Niesha Lowe, Shasheen Sterling and other close friends/relatives.

She will truly be missed and always remember by those who loved her.

Weep Not For Me

By an Unknown Author

Weep not for me though I have gone
Into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet fight
I am at peace, my soul's at rest
There is no need for tears
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years
There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear is now all gone
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on
Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
