Obituary

Ms. Fannie Mae Robinson entered this life on July 25, 1942. She was one of six children, two girls and four boys born to their late parents, Sam and Mary Robinson in Beckley, West Virginia. At the age of seventeen, she left West Virginia and moved to Freeport, Long Island. After the birth of her first child, DeCarlo, she moved to Harlem, New York where she remained until 2009.

She worked several jobs until she was employed with the State of New York at Manhattan Psychiatric on Wards Island where she ran the boutique for 43 years until she retired in 2013. She was a dependable hard worker who loved her coworkers and they loved her just the same.

Fannie was a mother to not only her children, but to all who she came in contact with. Fannie was always on the move. She always kept herself going. She enjoyed many things, but her favorite thing to do was to read the newspaper and play her scratch offs. Fannie Mae known to her friends as "Rob" or "Robbie" was a tuff, loving, caring and no nonsense woman that everyone loved and respected.

Fannie was blessed with a large and loving family. She was the proud mother of four children, DeCarlo, Willie who is deceased, Jamila and Cool Robinson. She was the grandmother of thirteen, DeCarlo, Makeba, Dominique and Daquan Hoffler, Isaiah, Tarshia and Teyanei Pierce, Autumn, Donaja, Dash, Damonte, Tori and Sean Robinson. She is also survived by sixteen great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
