Obituary

*There's an open gate at the end of the road, through which each must go alone
And there is a light we cannot see, our Father claims his own
Beyond this gate our loved one finds happiness and rest
And there is comfort in the thought that a loving God knows best.*

Betty Jean Uzzell was born on June 12, 1940 to the late Nester and Mamie Maxine Uzzell. In North Carolina, Betty completed her education from Wayne County High School in Goldsboro, North Carolina. Betty came to New York City to find better opportunities towards her desire to be independent and fully self-supporting.

Betty enjoyed motherhood. She kept her children always with her. She was such a loving, nurturing, compassionate mother and set rules for the household. Betty was a proud, dignified and courageous woman. Her inner strength was a direct result of her strong belief in a statement she often said throughout the years, "What goes around comes around."

Betty lived life to the fullest. Betty enjoyed spending time with family and friends. Precious memories of Betty will be cherished by: her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Williams; her son, Christopher Shakur Colbert-Uzzell, Dayquan Raymond Colbert-Uzzell; her granddaughter, Melissa H. Uzzell, the daughter of the late James M. Uzzell; her siblings, Arletha Roberts, Darline Good (deceased), Mamie Geneva Johnson, Nester Uzzell, Jr., Napoleon Uzzell (deceased), Maida Lee Brown (deceased), Carolyn Faye Uzzell, Darius Lee Uzzell and Diane April Uzzell; and a host of other family and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
