The Bend in the Road

Sometimes we come to life's crossroads
And we view what we think is the end.
But God has a much wider vision
And he knows that it's only a bend The road will go on and get smoother
And after we've stopped for a rest,
The path that lies hidden beyond us
Is often the path that is best.
So rest and relax and grow stronger,
Let go and let God share your load
And have faith in a brighter tomorrow You've just come to a bend in the road.

Scripture

“For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep. For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord.” 1 Thessalonians 4:14-17

Appreciation

The Richards-Mingo and their extended families would like to thank everyone for their prayers, kind thoughts, and support during this difficult time. Special thank you to our beloved uncle Arthur and his wife Rose for the overwhelming generosity they have shown. Please know that everyone’s words and prayers comforted us beyond expectation.

Please continue to pray for us.

May God bestow His richest blessings upon you and keep you in His care!
