Reflections of Life

Damion Bernard was born on June 22, 1983 in Kingston, Jamaica. Damion was the son of Norma Lee and an older brother to Marion Anderson. In December 1994, Damion and his sister Marion immigrated to America and resided in Paterson, NJ until his passing on Monday, May 15, 2017.

Damion attended Paterson Public School #26 where he explored his musical abilities, made great friends and became popular. Damion graduated elementary school in 1999 and attended Rosa Parks High School where he continued to expand on his musical abilities and made even more friends. Damion majored in musical instruments and of all the instruments, he played the violin! Damion practiced the violin at home for his mother and sister to fine tune his instrumental skills. He also played in his school's concerts and other musical productions. He then graduated from Rosa Parks in 2003. Damion attended DeVry University and dormed on the North Brunswick campus. Damion majored in Computer Information Systems. Damion also interned at a major stock and brokerage firm. Unfortunately, Damion did not complete his Bachelor's degree due to many distractions. Nevertheless, Damion returned home and obtained employment. Damion found his niche in the food service industry. He gained employment in restaurants, hospitals and his most recent employment was at Hilton Double Tree Hotel in Fort Lee. Damion enjoyed working no matter where he worked, he perfected his role and always laughed. He had a very distinct laugh.

Damion was compassionate and loving. He was very kind and would give his last to others. Damion loved having fun, enjoyed his music and had a way of making others laugh. No matter where Damion went he left an impression. Damion was loved by many. Damion will surely be missed.

Damion is survived by his mother Norma, step-father Andrew, sister Marion, brother-in-law Garrett, nephew Nathaniel and other family and friends.
