Reflections of Life

Lottie Bobbie (Deary) Pickett was born to the late Welton Deary, and his wife Lottie (Drakeford) Deary in Camden, South Carolina, on October 16, 1929. Lottie's lost her both Parents at an early age, and was then raised by the late Jimmy Wheeler and his wife Ella Jane Wheeler.

Lottie was educated in the Public School System in Camden, South Carolina, before relocating to Paterson, NJ.

Lottie was joined in marriage to the Late James Pickett Jr. She worked as a home health aide for many years, along with raising her family, and helping others with children for many years. Lottie was a faithful and devoted member of Unity Missionary Church Paterson, NJ where she served on the Missionary Board until her health failed.

Lottie enjoyed spending time with her family here in Paterson, as well as traveling all over the East coast to see her Brothers, and the rest of her family. She loved going to the Senior Center to be with her friends, and She loved to crochet blankets for the birth of her grandchildren.

Lottie was preceded in death by her Husband James Pickett Jr., four Children, Eugene Pickett, John and James Pickett III, and Louella Pickett., a Sister Louella Deary Drakeford, five Brothers, Henry Wheeler, Charlie Derry, Welton Deary Sr., Johnie Derry and Eugene Derry, Sr.

Lottie is survived by six Children, Betty (Pickett) James, Charles Pickett, Sandra Pickett, Geraldine Longmire, Tihesha Hogan, Sylvester Hunter; a Daughter-in-law, Odessa Pickett of Chicago, Illinois; A Son-in-law, Ronald Longmire of Paterson, NJ; a Brother, James Wheeler and his Wife Jeanette Wheeler, of Palm Court, Florida, A Sister, Sarah Joye of Johnstown, PA. Sisters-in-law, Queen Elizabeth Holmes of Port Reading, NJ, Carrie Brisbon, Bernice Martin of Paterson, N.J. and Elizabeth Deary. Brothers-in-law Bennie Pickett of Paterson, NJ, David (Jannie) Holmes of Roselle, NJ, A very special and Devoted Nephew Edward Deary of Paterson, NJ, a Niece Cynthia Kearny of Passaic, NJ, and a Friend Ms. Katherine Gilbert.

Lottie Pickett affectionately called Grandma Lottie by her Grandchildren, leaves to Cherish her Memory, Wait for it.
