Obituary

In confirmation with him that does all things well a beautiful life surrounded by family comes to an end on Thursday morning at Rahway Hospital. An angel of silence came to close the eyes of beloved mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, Lucinda S. Norman.

Lucinda was born in Kershaw, SC on November 1, 1940 to the late Kathleen Cook and Frank Cook. She attended public schools in Lancaster County, SC. Later on she moved to NYC to further her education and career. She later on developed a successful career at the NYPD Police Dept. And also Catholic Guardians where she later on retired from. Her hobbies were also singing in the church and family trips.

In her beautiful life she had joined hands with the late Milburn E. Norman, and from then on had a very collaborative and deep loving relationship.

Lucinda was a very loving, caring and devoted wife, mother and grandmother. Her family meant the world to her and her children and grandchildren were the pride and joy of her life. If you didn't know what love was you sure knew what it was when Lucinda was around. The legacy of Lucinda's kind spirit, passion for family and zest for life will live on through them. All who knew her loved and adored her. She will be deeply missed but never forgotten as her pleasant memories will forever be in our hearts.

She leaves behind her children: Deborah, Robbin (son-in-law Daryl), Ezekiel, Johnny, (daughter-in-law Leanne) David, Sheron; grandchildren, Miecha (grandson-in-law Wendell), Margaret, Khiry, Kendell Jr., Patrick, Brittany, Loveta, Manny, Samaria, Jalen, Johnny; great-grandchildren, Marie, Edwin Jr., Jaedyn, Braelynn; siblings, Mary, Lottie, Bishop John Hunter, Henry, Brandi and Annie; In-laws, Jimmy, Robert, Bernice and Timothy; and a host of other relatives, and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
