Obituary

Ann Manning-Basheradan

was born on February 21, 1930 to the late Theodore and Eleanine Manning.

She was born in Manhattan and raised in Brooklyn, New York. She later moved to Manhattan and afterwards she met and married the late Muhammad Ali (Charlie) Basheradan. She has two living children, daughter, Colleen Basheradan and son, Aly Basheradan.

She worked for Grumbacher Artist Supplies for twenty-three years and later as a Homecare Giver for twelve years.

Ann was fiercely independent, strong spirited, and she loved being around her family. She attended every family function, but she was most proud of her yearly travel expeditions from 1960 through 2013. That enabled her to visit five continents and a host of Caribbean Islands.

She was predeceased by three siblings, Daniel (Henry) Manning, Alberta (Honey) Aiken and Theodore (Sonny) Manning.

Ann leaves behind to cherish her memories: her two children; one sister, Joan Hardy; brothers, John Manning and Carl Manning; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends; and her best friend, Shirley Roper.

Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me though I have gone
Into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet fight

I am at peace, my soul at rest
There is no need for tears
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years

There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear is now all gone
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on

Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life
