Obituary

Dolly Helen King was born on January 7, 1941, in Baltimore, Maryland to the late parents, Thomas F. Hopewell and Irene Pendelton. Dolly was the oldest of four sisters.

She grew up in New York City and was educated in the New York City school system. For seventeen years she worked for the J.M. Fields Company until they closed down. After a short time off, she went to work for the Department of Transportation for almost twenty years as a Clerical Associate before retiring. Dolly was a pleasant, cheerful, no nonsense person and a hard worker. She enjoyed her employment at the Department of Transportation and made many friends. She had a "catch phrase" that she used a lot, but we won't say what it was. I'm sure her D.O.T co-workers know it well.

After retiring in 2010, Dolly slowed down and enjoyed taking mini vacations with her family. She was always beside her "best friend", Margo. Old school music was what Dolly loved to listen to. You could hear her singing to Whitney Houston, Luther Vandross, and her favorite group, The Manhattans. Gospel music touched her heart and smoothed her soul.

Dolly is survived by: her sisters, Yuwanda Whitehurst of Baltimore, MD, Denice Dunlap and brother-in-law, Kevin Dunlap of Woodstock, GA; a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends. Although Dolly had no children of her own, she was affectionately known as "Momma Dolly" to us all. She will be sorely missed.

God Came

*God came to me one day
He whispered in my ear
Come on my child, its time to go
Your home is now up there
I can't go now, I haven't said goodbye
To my friends and family
Don't worry, he said you don't have to fear.
In their hearts you'll always be near.
I went without saying anything
To all the people I love
Hoping they'll understand, it was in God's plan and at His gates I'll stand
So now that I'm in the house of the Lord I say don't shed a tear
Just think of it as his amazing grace
And know I'm always here Till our hearts in death are stilled.*

Acknowledgement

*The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour.
May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.*
