Obituary

Louise Green was born on September 13, 1925 in Barnwell, South Carolina. She was the daughter of Jessie Green and Louise E. White. Louise passed away on June 8, 2017.

Louise migrated from South Carolina in the 1940's to Harlem, New York. She was employed at one of New York's well-known hotels for over thirty years. Louise was a hotel housekeeper and was loved and respected by all she encountered.

She later moved to Woodstock Terrace in Bronx, New York where she was first introduced to Jehovah's Witnesses. On January 8, 1988, Louise was baptized which symbolized her dedication to Jehovah and she became one of Jehovah's Witnesses. She was a faithful servant of Jehovah and was mindful of showing her love for Jehovah as she shared in the field ministry. She thoroughly enjoyed spreading the good news of God's Kingdom, despite the challenges she experienced with her legs. She loved to serve Jehovah and she loved to share how much he helped her throughout her life.

Louise was a humble woman who loved to share her fond childhood memories of her family and friends. She loved her mother who she took care of in her later years. Louise would share the fun and laughter she experienced with her siblings and family members. She would also fondly reminisce of the good times her and her best sister friend, Mary Francis Williams and husband Herman shared. Louise was especially fond of and appreciative of Mary and Herman's daughter, Diane, who lovingly cared for Louise in her later years. Louise loved Diane as her own. She was affectionately known as "Aunt Louise" by all Williams' family members.

Louise was preceded in death by her mother and father, sisters, Flora Foster, Janie Green and Amy Williams, brothers, Jessie Green, Louis Green and Stewart Green.

She is survived by: her nieces, Charlotte Foster, Betty and Gail; as well as nephews, Charles Foster, Donald Green, Ronald Green, Louis Green and Jessie Green, Jr.; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

SONG 151
He Will Call (Job 14:13-15)

1. Life, like a mist, appears for just a day, Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away, Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again? Hear the promise God has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder, For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever, As the work of his own hand.

2. Friends of our God, though they may pass away, Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay, From death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be: Paradise eternally.

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder, For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever, As the work of his own hand.
