Reflections of Life

Mr. Jacob Rembert, son of the late Willie Rembert and Allien Wesley Rembert was born November 8, 1937, in Bishopville, South Carolina.

He attended Bishopville Public School and in 1956 decided to leave the agricultural life behind and for a short period moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Upon returning to South Carolina he decided to establish a life for himself in Paterson, New Jersey. He was employed as a machinist for Acme Machinery Company, Hackensack, New Jersey.

Jacob was the third child of ten children. He was the quiet brother, but he was always listening, thinking and watching it was always fun just to sit around him. He likes deep sea fish, was an admirer of cars, could draw and loved to go bowling, which resulted in him getting some bowling trophies.

His favorite pastime was to go food shopping every Wednesday with his brother, James and afterwards they would just sit in the car and talk about old times.

He was predeceased by his parents, Willie and Allien W. Rembert of Bishopville, South Carolina, his sister, Johnnie Mae Rembert of Paterson, New Jersey and his stepdaughter, Joyce Ann Davis of Paterson, NJ.

He passed away on June 12, 2017, at St. Joseph Hospital in Paterson, New Jersey, after a brief illness.

His memories will be forever cherished by his longtime companion, Barbara Davis of Paterson, NJ; his stepson, Gene Davis of Paterson, NJ; his daughter, Diane Davis of Paterson, NJ; his sons, Daryl Davis of Paterson, NJ and Mark Davis of Norfolk, VA; his brothers, James Rembert of Paterson, NJ, Arthur Rembert of Detroit, MI, Truman Rembert of Philadelphia, PA, Solomon Rembert of Willingboro, NJ; his sisters, Willien Littles of Woodbridge, VA, Hattie Mae Rembert of Fresh Meadows, NY, Allien Davis Philadelphia, PA, Lillie Lattimore of Elkins Park, PA; fifteen grandchildren; and a host of relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
