Obituary

Millie Jo Stovall departed this life at the Centra State Hospital in Freehold, New Jersey on Tuesday, June 13, 2017.

Millie was born on July 3, 1938 in Buford, Georgia to the late Paul Castleberry and Pearlean Perkins. She attended elementary and high school in Monroe, Georgia where she graduated from Carver High. After graduating from high school, Millie continued and completed her higher education at Upsala College in East Orange, New Jersey. Upon completion of her studies at Upsala, and living and enjoying life, Millie met a distinguished gentleman that would capture her heart. On June 27, 1970 she united in holy matrimony to her best friend until she entered into eternal peace, Wayne Stovall. To this union no children were born.

Millie was a life long resident of East Orange, New Jersey until her and Wayne decided it was time for a more quiet and subdued area. They relocated to Howell, New Jersey. Millie was a loyal and diligent employee for the U. S. Attorney's Office where she served as a paralegal until retirement for 29 ½ years. She enjoyed working and completing any tasked required of her with ease, grace and her vibrant smile.

Millie was a faithful member of the Mount Calvary Baptist Church, in Newark, NJ where she served on many committees and programs. Even upon her relocating to Howell she would always have her, Wayne to drive her up on Sundays so she could worship in her home church. She was a faithful member until her health began to decline and she was unable to make the commute back and forth. If there was an Anniversary, Palm Sunday Breakfast or family gathering held, you could always count on Millie's delicious, fluffy, golden hand made rolls on the table!

Sweet, caring, passionate and attentive are all great adjectives that would describe Millie. She was a trusted friend to many and would go above and beyond to help anyone she could. Millie was truly a survivor and one who had a testimony to share. She battled and beat breast cancer and lived life to its fullest. Millie loved her family and enjoyed spending time with them.

She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted husband of 46 years, Wayne (Howell); stepdaughter; Vivian (Major) Fayetteville, NC, one grandson, Major Jr., two sister in laws; Joyce Ann Hamilton (Larry), Howell, NJ; Bessie Stovall, Irvington, NJ; cousin, Betty Jean Harris (Midge), Norfolk, Va; two devoted friends, Daisy Stokes and Cleo Blount and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

A SILENT TEAR

Just close your eyes and you will see
All the memories you have of me
Just sit and relax and you will find
I'm really still there inside your mind
Don't cry for me now I'm gone
For I am in the land of song
There is no pain, there is no fear
So dry away that silent tear
Don't think of me in the dark and cold
For here I am, no longer old
I'm in that place that's filled with love
Known to you all, as "up above"
