Reflections of Life

John 11:26

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

Samuel Lee Sadler, Jr. was born January 8, 1951 in High Point, NC to the late Odessa Barrier Sadler and Rev. Samuel Lee Sadler, Sr., and resided in Paterson, NJ most of his life, relocating at the age of seven.

He was educated in the public schools system, and was graduate of the William Penn High School of High Point, NC.

At an early age he was converted, and served in his Father's church where he was a choir member.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Odessa Sadler and Rev. Samuel Lee Sadler, Sr.; his sister, Brenda Sadler; and his brothers, James Sadler and Robert Earl Baxter.

He leaves to cherish precious memories: his daughters, Gaye Glasspie of Clifton, NJ, and Sharon Eaton of Clayton, NC; his loving sisters, Bettie Glenn of Paterson, NJ, Carolyn Green of Florence, SC, and Barbara (Leslie) Bussie of Paterson, NJ; a special brother, Thomas Brown of Strasburg, PA; a Darling Friend, Joanne Whitaker of Paterson, NJ; one grandchild, Shelbey Logan Glasspie; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews, great-great-great nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

A Tribute To My Family

Heaven

I found a new place where I can be free
A whole new beginning made just for me
A wonderful place where there's no pain
The sun is always shining, there's never any rain
It's gorgeous and divine like a beautiful work of art
I am no longer old and yes I have a new heart

My body is whole and my mind is so clear
No worries, no coughing, no stress, and no fear

Miss if you must but please don't cry
I'm with you every moment I'll always be nearby
Whenever your sorrows bears down on your heart
Think not of my ending, but of my new start
There's no place on earth I rather be compared to the joy of God smiling at me
