

In Loving Memory of

Loretta "Winky" Baker

September 23, 1954 - June 22, 2017

Obituary

Loretta “Winky” Baker was born on September 23, 1954, youngest of twin girls (the late Floretta “Baldy” Baker) at the John Randolph Hospital in Hopewell, Virginia to the late Dorothy and Andrew Baker.

She attended Carter G. Woodson High School in Hopewell and then later graduated from Walton High School in the Bronx, New York. She was an employee of Ms. Frances Store for several years in Hopewell, Virginia. At a young age, she became a member of Saint Peter’s Lutheran Church in the Bronx.

She also served as a New York City School Safety Officer and LOVED working with Adults with Special Needs. “Winky” was a diehard sports fan. She was always known for how much she loved her home teams, The New York Yankees and The New York Giants. She also was known for her deep love for family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Edward (Lonnie), her sisters, Ardelia (Dee-Dee), Dorothy (Sweetie) and Floretta (Baldy) and her aunt, Gracie Yearby. She leaves to mourn: her loving niece/(daughter) Natasha; her sister, Andrea (Pam); her brothers, Nathaniel (Butch), Charles (Buck), Mark and Stevie; her aunts, Elizabeth (Mickey) Covington and Elonora Freeman; her in-laws, Robin, Rita and Lisa; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family members and friends.
