Obituary

Clyde Flagg was born August 5, 1952 to Christine and Earl H Flagg, Sr. He was the fourth of nine children – the third boy. He was a resident of Newark, New Jersey.

Clyde graduated eighth grade from Dayton Street School, went on to Newark Tech majoring in Machine Shop and graduated in four years. Clyde became a boy scout at eleven years old, he belonged to Troop 90 (Robert Treat Council).

Later on in life, he became Assistant Scout Master to Troop 444 (Essex County Council) known as Mr. Flagg. He worked at US Medals for a brief time. He started as a paper boy for the Newark Star ledger, he worked there for thirty-five years. His hobby was the studying of cutting edge technology that we take for granted today. He was the photographer for the family and neighborhood. He made his own personal movies. He was a collector of different types of Arts until his health started to fail him. He was a one word man – yes or no, no explanation.

He was preceded in death by his mother: Christine, Grandmother, Ernestine Dulap, Grandmother Jessie Flagg, Grandfather, Francis Flagg and a host of aunts and great aunts, host of uncles and great uncles.

He is survived by his father, Earl H. Flagg Sr.; brothers and sisters, Earl H. Flagg, Jr, Donald C. Flagg, Carol Ann Flagg, James Frances Flagg, Barbara J. Newsome, Ernestine Jackson, David A. Flagg, and Christopher Flagg; and a host of great aunts, aunts, nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins along with a multitude of friends.

Come To Me

*God saw he was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered "Come to me"
The days of toil and nights of pain
The weary hours have passed
The patient gentle worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Day and night we stood by him
And saw him in pain,
Anxiously awaiting his cure
But our waiting was in vain.
God who knoweth all things best
Eased his suffering, gave him rest
He is gone but not forgotten,
Never will our memories fade
Sweetest thoughts of him will ever linger
Round the place where he rests.*
