Obituary

Mr. Horace Jacobs “Ice Cream Man” was born on January 9, 1940 in Marion County, South Carolina to the late Willie and Lucille Jacobs. Horace was educated in the public schools of Marion. He moved to Hempstead, Long Island in 1965.

While working in Borden Ice Cream Company, he met the love of his life, Albertha Jacobs whom preceded him in death almost 3 years to the day. They married on October 13, 1973 and to this union six children were born.

Horace worked over 30 years (1973-2003) at the very popular Haagen Dazs Ice Cream. Anyone that knew him knows of how much he loved his job. Whenever he traveled and visited anyone he brought ice cream to them that's how he became known as the "Ice Cream Man". When Horace retired in 2003 he devoted his time to watching baseball (N.Y. Mets) and basketball (N.Y. Knicks), listening to gospel music and taking care of his grandchildren.

Horace will join his beloved wife, Albertha and grandson, Khalil and far too many more loved ones; he leaves behind to cherish his memories: Pattie Jacobs, Horace Jr. Jacobs, Jesse (Kimberly) Jacobs, Albertha "Crystal" (Marcarol) Hayes, Robert Jacobs and Sylvia Jacobs. He is also survived by seven sisters, Shirley Barnes, Dorothy (Arnold Moore) Jacobs-Moore, Gladys Edmonds and Carolyn Foxworth all of NY, Barbara (Pearle) Graves of Oaklohma, Thelma (Major) Brantley of SC, and Sylvia (Gary) Graham of FL; and one brother, Jimmy Jacobs of FL; grandchildren, Alakia, Precious, Malik, Emmonie, Ian, Christopher, Michael, Madison, Isaiah and Kaia; in-laws, Candy Johnson of NY, Amos Reid of SC, Christine Reid of SC and Maud Reid of FL and a host of nieces and nephews, cousins and loving friends.

“You will never be forgotten”

Repast will follow the burial in the Rev. Dr. Jasper Simmons Fellowship Hall (Greater File Chapel Baptist Church).

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
why cry for soul set free?
Miss me a little -but not too long and not with your head bowed low remember the love that we once shared Miss me -but let me go
For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone
it's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home when you are lonely and sick of heart
go to the friends we know
and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds missed me -but let me go.
