BIOGRAPHY

Tamara Tracey-Ann Campbell

Tamara Tracey-Ann Campbell was born on October 13, 1981 to Glenford and Dorothy Campbell in Spanish Town, Jamaica WI. Tamara migrated to the United States over 20 years ago and have since resided in Newark, NJ. She was previously employed by Foreman Mills and later went on to work at Clara Maass Hospital at the time of her decease.

Tamara was known for her excellent cooking skills and you could depend on her to cook some scrumptious meals for the holiday family gathering. Everyone looked forward to her famous mac and cheese dish. She was known for her generosity as she would help anyone who needed a place to sleep, eat or study when things were difficult for them.

Tamara enjoyed listening to music and although she was always quiet and soft spoken she kept up with the latest fashion trend and enjoyed socializing with friends and family.

Tamara leaves to cherish in loving memory her children-son, Tyshon and daughters-Tanesha, Tanejah and Sabrina; mother and father, Dorothy and Glenford Campbell; brothers, Dewayne and Oshane, sisters; Tamika, Woneka, Oshena and Jamila; Grandparents, Radcliffe and Khalice Smith; uncles, Anthony, Delroy, Devon, Richard, Garfield, Clive, Martin, Robert, Wayne; aunt, Sharon, Clair, Yolanda, Sonia, Althea, Pam, Pauline and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, families and friends.

COMMENDATION

*PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

God of love, we thank you for all with which you have blessed us even to this day: for the gift of joy in days of health and strength and for the gifts of your abiding presence and promise in days of pain and grief. We praise you for home and friends, and for our baptism and place in your Church with all who have faithfully lived and died. Above all else, we thank you for Jesus, who knew our grief's, who died our death and rose for our sake, and who lives and prays for us.

POSTLUDE..... “It Is Well With My Soul” music by Philip P. Bliss

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you." Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
