Obituary

Naomi Iola Whyte was born in Harlem, New York on October 9, 1985 to Jacqueline Thompson and Michael Hilton Whyte. Naomi, known to most as "Nana" graduated from Wadleigh High School in 2003. Following high school, Nana attended Virginia State University where she received her undergraduate degree in Business Management. Directly after Nana received two graduate degrees, one in Economics and the other in Project Management.

Nana was a vivacious, confident and energetic woman. She was always full of life and laughter. As many know Nana loved to play jokes on others. No matter what was going on Nana managed to find joy in the little things. She had a deep love for music and friends, anyone who came in contact with her instantly fell in love.

Education was paramount to Nana and the love she had for her family was simply undeniable. She loved her sisters and brothers dearly.

Naomi left her earthly home on Thursday, June 29, 2017 to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Her radiant smile and bubbly personality will surely be missed. She leaves to cherish her memories and loving spirit: her mother, Jacqueline Thompson; father, Michael Whyte; step mother, Delores Whyte; one brother who preceded her in death, Eric Whyte; thirteen surviving siblings, Mike, Jr., Marcia Whyte, Randy Whyte, Marlon Whyte, Wendell Whyte, Sherwin Whyte, Jemmale Whyte, Carol Whyte, Asia Thompson, Christina Whyte, Toni Thompson, Faith Thompson, Diamond Thompson; two godchildren, Londyn and Ki'ron; her dog, "Real"; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.

Although I'm sad without you and wishing you were here with plenty memories of good times us sisters as best friends we once shared, as I go to sleep with tears on my face, asking God why? But knowing you're no longer suffering and you're in a better place. I just wish I had one last time to say goodbye, I hear your voice in my head telling me Asia I know, don't cry, I just want to tell you Nana I love you and this isn't goodbye just hold a spot for me in heaven with smiles on your face RIP my angel you're in a better place.
