Obituary

Jonathan Albert Johnson Aka “Bill” was born on December 9, 1972 at Greenpoint Hospital to his late parents William Johnson Sr. and Loretta Johnson.

Jonathan was educated in Brooklyn school systems. He attended Our Lady Of Bedford Stuyvesant, Junior High School #35 and Boys and Girls High School.

Jonathan was raised as a Baptist Christian at New Cannan Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. A.I. Cunningham in Brooklyn, New York. The faith of God was instilled within him by his Godly Spirit mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Jonathan had a pure heart of gold. He had style, character and class his spirit was filled with happiness, he displayed compassion to others and he was filled with courage.

Jonathan had a creative power to change a difficult situation to any easy tasks, he was a small guy with a big heart that wasn't afraid of life's challenges.

Jonathan loved his family, his children Jonathan and Jani Johnson and the love of his life Erica Woodson. When you would see Jonathan Aka “Bill” you would also see his right-hand Woman. Bill loved BBQs, family outings, his friends near and far and most of all he loved having fun.

Jonathan always displayed hugs n kisses with that great adorable smile. Growing up his mother noticed the musical talent in him and his brothers as well as other friends of 50 Stuyvesant.

During the 1980's his mother and uncle Guy organized a gospel group called Tulio-Tel-Stars of Joy and later changed the name to the Gospel Rhythmicists that included William Johnson Jr., Eric, Mark, Jonathan, Talesha, Rubin and William Roberson, Mike Judkins, Stanley Brown, Barry Salter, Darren Perry, and Earl Lewis.

The time for you to go has come so soon and thinking about it makes us feel blue, God knew that you were suffering he knew you were in pain, he knew that you would never get well on earth again he saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb so he closed your weary eyelids and whispered “Peace be thine” It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone; For part of us went with you the day God called you home.

Jonathan was preceded in death by his Mother Loretta & Father William Sr. Johnson, Brother William Johnson Jr., his Grandmother Lorine Willis, Great-Grandmother Essie Hudson, his Uncles Ernest Woods and Guy Willis.

Jonathan leaves to cherish in his memory his loving love of his life Erika Woodson, his children Jonathan and Jani Johnson, his siblings brothers Eric, Marcus, Lance, his sister Talesha, his grandmother Thelma Johnson, sister-in-law Portia Johnson, nieces Giana, Joell, Ashley and nephews Trevon, Marcus Jr. and Lil Supreme, aunts Beulah, Armantha, Monetta, uncles Carlos, Reynold, Tony, Willie-Wayne, and a host of cousins.
