Obituary

Vernatine Davis was born April 29, 1956, Brooklyn, New York. She was married to Isaac Davis, Sr., who preceded her in death.

Vernatine was a loving, generous person, always willing to share with others in need. She was a very peaceful person and full of joy. She always had a smile no matter how difficult things were. She would say, “relax”, “be patient,” “don’t sweat the small stuff.” She was a creative woman. She liked to sew, even sewing outfits by hand if she didn’t have a sewing machine.” She made floral arrangements and baskets to supplement the family income. She loved giving back to her community by feeding the homeless, and she always knew just how to lift the spirits of those down in spirit. She had a heart of gold, and often prayed that God would bring her family closer together. She wished happiness for her children. She loved to send out text messages just to say I LOVE YOU first thing in the morning just to make us smile.

She loved Pattie Labelle and said Steve Harvey was her MAIN MAN. Her favorite saying was BE Fabulous. She struggled with life at times but she loved the Lord and she knew He Loved her.

Vernatine leaves behind five children, Ronald Perry, Marcus Perry, Kimberly “Kim” Perry, Isaac Davis, Jr., Benjamin “Ben” Davis, and two grandchildren, Jeremiah Moore and Hailee Davis, and a host of really great friends.

Heaven Has Gained An Angel

As you complete this temporary journey you have embraced our hearts

Yes we mourn but realize this is where your life truly starts your smile sparkled greater than silver and gold We're willing to let go of your hand so that God can grab hold. We will always love you as you have continued to love us all we ask now is that you look down while you are above us we are grateful that God put us in the midst of your presence we breathe with your memory and walk with your essence. The Lord is our Shepherd He tends to us as sheep and mends the hearts that are weak until one day we can shake his hand and sit at his feet we don't think of you as a loss to our family that remains We cherish you as a beautiful angel that heaven has gained!
