Obituary

Luke Martin Rambharose was brought to this world on March 5th 1999 in Manhattan, NY to his proud mother, Deborah Ramos and father, Dino Rambharose. Luke Martin Rambharose was the youngest of four. Michael Angelo, Daniel Rambharose, Ashley Rambharose.

Luke Martin Rambharose's passing has took us all by shock and disbelief we share a mutual sadness but may we all not stand in anger and regret but may we stand with passion happiness and comfort as we celebrate the life of a young man who showed no hate, animosity, sadness or judgment to anyone.

During football Luke played the role as the team's motivational speaker and excelled in game play. He was an advocate of a fit and healthful lifestyle. Luke had a passion for music throughout his entire life. Throughout middle school and high school he kept journals with poetry and raps. Luke played an active role in Leonia's student community as a member of the student senate in his early years of high school. Luke loved to make people laugh and smile. He was always the class clown, even getting the teachers to laugh. Luke had a keen sense of fashion it was his thing to always be matching perfectly. Luke loved his hair and spent three years growing it. Someone was always braiding his hair in the cafeteria or in the hallways at school.

This extraordinary young man Luke Martin Rambharose whose exceptional love and compassion touched all our lives. Luke Martin Rambharose was a young innocent, sweet and kind in his simplicity of the world. Luke Martin Rambharose's spirit lives in us all from his bright smile and amusing laugh to his corny jokes that made us laugh. His impact has left is everlasting touch and heart-warming comfort on our lives. We will carry his love and joyful outlook on life with us as we remember a Brother, Son, Friend, but most of all Now Our Angel.

Don't

Don't spend too much time in mourning, Tears are for the sad; I left to be with Jesus And this should make you glad. Don't waste your hours in grieving, No need to feel distress; I'm tired of life's frustrations And had to get some rest. Don't puzzle yourself with questions Or try to reason why Life here for me was ended, It came my time to die. Don't lose the love I gave you Feed it with your care; Grow it with devotion And spread it everywhere. Don't fret because my leaving Came in such a way; We'll have another meeting In God's eternal day.
