Cora Wright, the daughter of the late John and Lucy Wright was born in Montgomery, Alabama on December 30, 1940. She departed to her eternal resting place on August 4, 2017.

Cora attended Booker T. Washington High School and after high school she moved to New York City seeking employment. After working on many jobs, she found the job she loved at United Cleaners and she stayed there until retirement of 28 years. She worked hard down through the years to make sure she took care of her family.

Cora joined Oak Grove Baptist Church with her parents in 1955, when she moved to New York she joined Unity Baptist Church in 1970 and she sang on the Unity Baptist Church Choir. Her favorite song was, "Don't You Know God is Able". She was loved by many and will be missed by all.

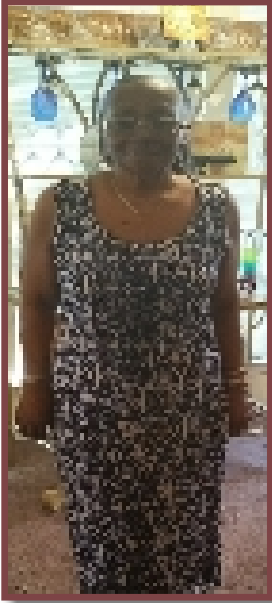

Cora was preceded in death by: her parents, John and Lucy Wright; sisters, Annie, Lucy, Rebecca, Lottie and Betty; and brothers, Felmon, James and John.

She leave to cherish her memory: her children, Michael Wright, Angie Wright and Kenneth Wright; grandchildren, Michael, Jr., Latasha, Ty'nell and Sh'Kora; great grands, Tyell and Maya; sister, Elizabeth Evans; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

A very special thanks to her nieces, Zakiyyah (Shelia), Regina and Verna for being there for her in her last days.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

If tears could build a stairway
And memories were a lane
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why
Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to lose you
No one will ever know
But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
Life still has much in store
Since you'll never be forgotten
And we love you forever more
