Obituary

Lillian Brack went to her final resting place on Sunday, August 13, 2017. The oldest daughter of the late Joseph Robinson and Gertrude (nee Reed), born January 30th 1932 in Tampa, Florida.

Lillian was joined in marriage for almost twelve years to the late William Brack. Her son Thomas Williams (Tommy Boy) preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters, Cynthia Pledger and Sylvia Lewis; two grandchildren, Sharnell Lewis and Jermar Pledger also four great grandchildren, Porsha, James Jr., Jamani and Chloe; as well as a host of nieces and nephews.

A resident of Newark for more than sixty years. Lillian was employed by Newark Housing Authority, Paul B. Williams Printing Company and later retired from New Community Baby Land.

Lillian will be beloved and remembered for her dedication as a mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She loved to cook and was always the peace maker for the family. She was the last living aunt of this family's generation. Lillian was also a dedicated member of Metropolitan Baptist Church where she was baptized in 1958.

Prior to her failing health, she was very active in her community. She loved listening to gospel music and reading her bible.

She will be missed by her family and all who knew and loved her.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

Acknowledgement

The family would like to thank all friends and extended family for their love and support during this difficult transition.
