Obituary

Beverly Yates was born on April 19, 1934 in the Bronx, New York to the late Hattie and William Yates. He was a devoted brother to five siblings: William Yates (Late), Raymond Alfred Yates (Late), Helen Elliston, Flora Yates, and Eleanor Williams (Late). Beverly was also a loving father to two children: Wanda Yates and Allan Yates (Late).

On August 12, 2017, Beverly was called Home to be with the Lord.

During his youth, Beverly attended P.S. 51 and Morris High School and was an active member of his Sunday school and church at the Bronx Greater Refuge Temple in New York, pastored by the Late Bishop Thomas Richardson and Bishop R.C. Lawson (Founder).

As a young man, Beverly willingly accepted the call and honorably served his country in the United States Air Force.

Beverly leaves to mourn: daughter, Wanda Yates; two sisters, Helen Elliston and Flora Yates; three grandchildren, Tameaka Jackson, Randy Jackson, and Keith Yates; three nieces, Donna Elliston, Denise Yates, and Linda Odom; cousins, Linda Spencer and Family, Michelle Ford, the McCray Family (Baltimore, MD), Leonard Giles and Family (California); and a host of extended family and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
