Obituary

Lucille Elizabeth Lewis was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Trent on June 8th, 1925 in Buckingham, Virginia. After being raised by her loving grandmother, Lucille soon moved to New York City where she married the late George Lewis, Jr.

Lucille and George shared two children, George (Butch) Lewis, and Stephen (Stevie) Lewis, both whom preceded her in death.

One of Lucille's crowning achievements was becoming the personal assistant to Pauline Trigere of the Pauline Trigere Fashion House during her late teenage years. She blossomed in her role, and was even featured in an article for Variety magazine. She loved her job, and dedicated over 50 years to her Pauline Trigere family.

During her time there, Lucille met her nearest and dearest friend, Violet Johnson. The two soon became inseparable and their friendship flourished into a loving sisterhood. The two traveled the world, and supported each other through all triumphs and tragedies in each other's lives.

Lucille was truly a woman of God, serving as an active, faithful member of St. Phillips Episcopal Church for over 50 years. She stood firm in her faith, and truly believed in one of her favorite Bible verses Philippians 4:13; "I can do all things, through Christ who strengthens me".

Lucille was well known for her kind heart and spirit. She often dedicated her time and attention to helping anyone in need. In October 1972, Lucille became a founding member of the Key Women of America's Concourse Village branch, which enabled her to help so many people. The Key Women organization was near and dear to Lucille's heart, so much that she remained active as their treasurer until 2012, at 87 years old.

Lucille was truly an earth angel to so many, and will be missed dearly. She leaves to mourn, the Garrett, Nixon, and Johnson families as well as a host of friends, and "adopted" nieces, nephews, and grandchildren.

We'd also like to acknowledge her longtime companion, the late Robert Downer (Bobby) whom she joins in eternal rest.

Fill Not Your Hearts With Pain and Sorrow

*Fill not your hearts with pain and sorrow
But remember me in every tomorrow,
Remember the joy, and the smiles
I've only gone to rest a little while
Although my leaving causes pain and grief
My going has eased my hurt and given me relief.
So dry your eyes and remember me,
Not as I am now, but as I used to be.
Because I will remember you all and look on with a smile.
Understand in your hearts, I've only gone to rest a little while.
As long as I have the love of each of you
I can live my life in the hearts of all of you.*
