Reflections of Life

J.B. Perkins departed this life on August 24, 2017. He was born June 14, 1938, in Bishopville, SC.

J.B. was employed at Richardson Chemical Company & Hydro Lab for numerous years, before retiring.

J.B. Loved baseball, racing sports cars and he loved playing cards on Friday nights with the fella's.

J.B. was an outspoken person. He would say hat was exactly on his mind. He was outgoing with a big personality and even a bigger heart and full of life.

J.B. Met the love of his life and they married in 1960 and with this union they had six children.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: his loving wife, Areitha; four sons, Joseph (Ruthie), Kenneth (Michelle), Darryl (Catina) and Romonda; two daughters, Arthenia Diane-Rouse, Argustani Pryor (Booker), Jennings and Bernard; thirteen grandchildren, Jamar, Jamier, Mylashia, Kennitria, Titiana, Kendall, Shekemma, Denzel, Ailjalon, Jordan, Catrina, Chardonnay and Sasha; one great grandson, Mahki; sisters, Betty Quick, Lois Bratton, Louise Blayther (Thomas) and Barbara Canty; two sisters-in-law, Doris Blair and Lois Neddham; brothers-in-law, Willie King and Ervin King (Ruth); and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.

It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.

Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
