obituary

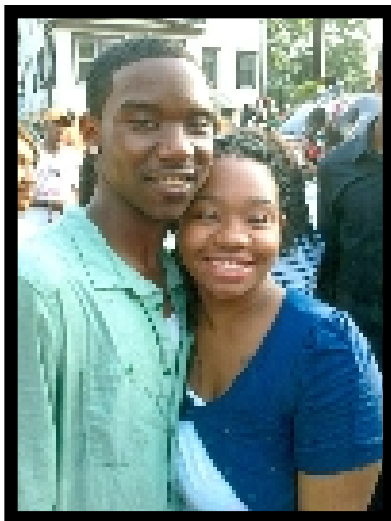

Malcolm Tique Ford "Bogus" was born April 29, 1993 in Newark, NJ to Robin Ford and Herbert Keys. He was called home August 24, 2017 at University Hospital in Newark, NJ.

Bogus what he was respectfully known as, was educated in the Newark Public School system. He attended Camden Middle School and received his high school diploma from West Side High School in 2011.

Bogus enjoyed playing video games and basketball. In 2008, he played in the Battle of the Bricks and won the championship.

He had a passion for fashion, everyone who knew him knows he had a great taste and if needed he would Rip any runway. He worked at The Turtle Back Zoo for a few years and Newark Tech High School where he became all the students "Favorite Security Guard".

He had a smile that would lighten up a room. He loved all his family and friends but he had a special bond with his cousin Wendelle Ford, and he loved spending time with his daughter, Aerianie Ford.

He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Willie Clinton; great grandmother, Ethel Ford, and Aunt Debra Ford.

He leaves to cherish and honor his memory: his parents, Robin Ford and Herbert Keys; his daughter, Aerianie Ford, 6; siblings, Shonte' Ford, Dominique Ford, Jaleesha Ford, Terrill Ford, Adbul McKenzie and Kalimah Johnson; grandmother, Minnie Ford; nieces, Titianna Ford, Tahmira and Ahmira Ford; eight nephews, Shamir Ford, Jah'myhr Ford, Tyvier Ford, Tiizier Ford, Akani and Ky-mani Campbell, Johann Lennon and Jaizier Robinson; three aunts, Lakesha Ford, Towanna Ford and Shadesha Ford; best friend, Darrin Joyner; and a host of loving family members and friends.

Missing You Always

You never said I'm leaving
You never said goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.

A million times I needed you
A million times I cried,
If Love alone could have saved you
You never would have died

In Life I loved you dearly
In death I love you still,
In my heart I hold a place
That only you can fill.
