Life's Reflection of Caesar Eley

Cesar H. Eley "Caesar Lee" was the second child born to the late Elsie Marie Eley.

Cesar was educated in the New York public school system. He later graduated from the Job Corps in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Cesar married Beverly Barnes in 1989, he was a loving husband, father, and grandfather.

Cesar retired in 2008, after dedicating 36 years working at Columbia University, in NY, NY.

Cesar received a Red Belt in Martial Arts. One of his greatest moment was when he was inducted into the "Hall of Honors" by the Action Martial Arts Magazine. He was a master checker player and was taught by his grandfather while living in North Carolina as a child.

Cesar's smile was like a ray of sunshine. His warmth and kindness to his family and his friends could be felt whenever you were in his presence. Caesar had his own Mountain to climb and pain to bear, yet he would care for others and was willing to share.

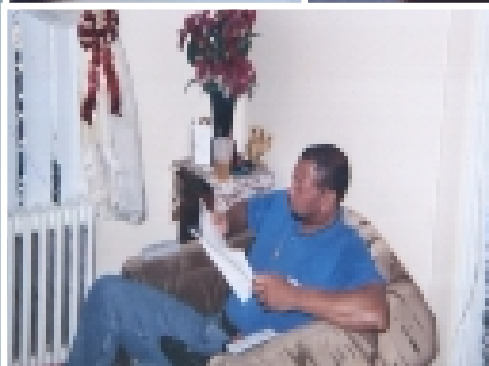

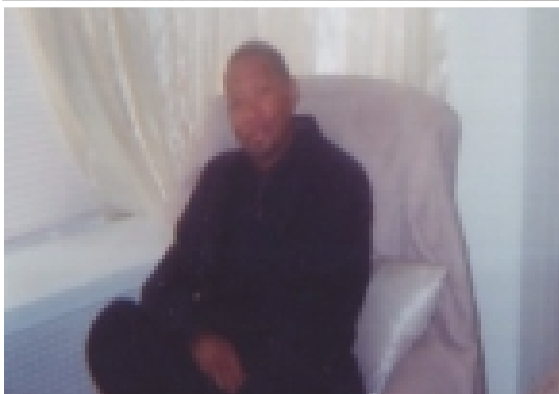

What a celebration around God's throne because his Mother's arms were open to welcome him home. "God be the Glory"

"I Am Free"

God must have known you were getting weary, so he did what he knew was best. He quietly and softly whispered, "Come unto me Son."

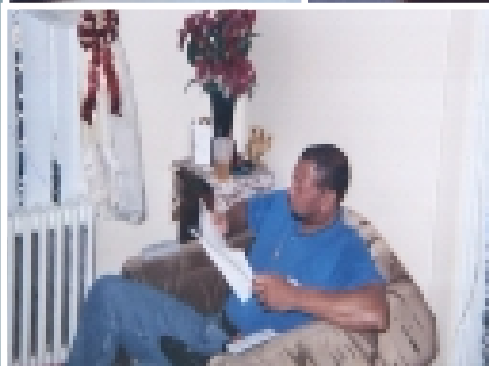

Cesar Eley is predeceased by two brothers, Ronald Barbara and Barry Barbara.

Cesar Eley leaves to cherish his memories: wife, Beverly V. Barnes Eley; children, Ronda McClean (Christopher), Kizzy Stewart (Launey), and Elmaldi Eley; siblings, Wayne Eley (Tonya), Lonnie Barbara (Dawn), Sylvia Wilson (Jerome), and Jeffrey Barbara (Michelle); grandchildren, Messiah Smythe, Jayliyah Bowie, Jayoni Bowie, Samiyah Smythe, and Christopher McClean; sisters-in-law, Deborah Lewis (Richard), Pamela Brinson (Clarence) and Brenda Barnes; stepmother, Bernice Diggs; step-brother, Ricky Diggs. Also he is survived by a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
