Della Lee Carter affectionately known as “Indian Girl” because of her long silky hair, was born June 16, 1956 in Louisburg, NC to the late Gilbert Lee Carter and Lenora Aldridge the oldest of five.

Dell moved to New Jersey as a young child. Those who knew Dell, understood that she would tell you the truth and took no short cuts on telling you how she felt at any giving moment, but make no mistakes, she was a loving person. You could always find her at home jamming to her collection of oldies but goodies.

Dell worked as a home health aide. Shortly after, she spent most of her life raising her children, nieces and nephews, her door was always opened to anyone who knew her. She was that type of person.

Dell closed her eyes on August 26, 2017 at St. Joseph Hospital.

Dell is survived by her mother, Lenora Aldridge; two sons, Lawrence and Jeremiah Carter; daughter, Adella Mason; daughter-in-law, Terra; five brothers, Otis, Robert, Ronnie, Bobby and Ricky; sister, Lisa one uncle, Wilbert Williams; grandchildren, Jordan, Christopher, Kai, Shanasia, Jamere, Rahjah and Samar; great grandchildren, Kaniree and Kristian; one god-daughter, Jaquina Davis; eight nieces, seven nephews and a host of other family members and friends.

Heaven and Earth

Earth, the land of problems,
the land of strife.
Heaven, the better land full of joy
and more perfect life.
Facing our problems each
and everyday;
choosing to do right no matter
what comes our way.
Earth, a preparation for us dealing with what lies ahead;
Heaven, a permanent home where all our souls are fed.
