Obituary

Denise Charnette White Hill was born on May 18, 1954 in Jersey City New Jersey to the late William and Tommie Mae White.

During her younger years she attended Jersey City Public School and graduated from Adore of Hope in 1971. From there she married her high school sweetheart George Hill Sr. and through their union had 5 beautiful children. Through out her life Denise worked several jobs, working as a retail clerk at Bradlee's, to working at Hamilton Park Nursing Home where she took care of her patients.

Ultimately Denise loved helping her community, everyone on Clerk Street knew her as Momma Hill. She treated all the children as if they were her own. Whether it be letting the children have parties in her basement, playing in the backyard, cooking or staying the night. She would do anything to make her kids happy.

Denise was also an active member of Gospel Temple Porter Memorial Church of God in Christ where she held several positions such as the choir director, she also was a Sunday school teacher along with financing the committee.

Denise was known and loved by many and some of her favorite quotes were "And This To Shall Pass" "Keep It Moving" and "I Know That's aright" so if you hear her say any of these quotes she meant it.

Denise was preceded in death by her parents, grandmother, Janie Chatman, brother, Avery White, favorite aunt, Ella Ward and granddaughter, Jahmira Johnson.

She leaves to mourn her memory: her sister, Michele White; five children, George Hill, Jr., Yolanda Hill, Danielle Hill, Tyiesha Johnson (Terrence) and Antwan Hill; nine grandchildren, Phillip Glover, Danira Hill, Abdul Webster, Daquan Kendrick, Dyshaun Brooks, Jahmir Johnson, Yaniya Hill, Tahir Johnson and London Johnson; five great grandchildren, Deion Pinkney, Daquel Pinkney, Darion Pinkney, Jr., Danasia Pinkney and Jacob Glover; two nieces, Diane White and Sharonda White; two great nephews, Popcorn White and Darion Scott; two great nieces, Takiyyah Terrell and Jianne Lockwood; special daughter, Latia Stanford; goddaughter, Sabrina Ward; and a host of other loving cousins and other relatives.

Never Knew Anyone More Worthy!

A woman with a heart made of gold
But would tell you about yourself
if it needed to be told...

With the strength of a lioness,
You fought the ultimate fight,
Some may think you lost
but I know you're shining so bright...

I'll miss you with all that I am
And remember you for all that you are...
In my heart I'll hear you sing...

With this I'm content knowing you,
If no one else were worthy of those wings!

I Love You Ma!!!
Your Loving Daughter
Celina Colclough
