Obituary

John Amos Livingston, Jr. was born on February 19, 1927 in Orangeburg, South Carolina. John was the oldest of eleven children. John was born to the late Daisy and John Livingston. He has nine brothers and one sister.

Brothers Herbert, Robert, Joseph, George, James, Woodrow, and Walter preceded him in death. Brothers Clarence, Jacob, and sister Hattie continue to cherish his fond memories as well as brother-in-law, Charles Graham and sister-in-law, Bertha Livingston.

John and the late Essie Mary Adams-Livingston met in South Carolina. They had 5 children from this union: John Amos Livingston, Deceased, Mary Williams, Herbert Livingston, Deceased, Dorothy Hardy, Linda Livingston, and one daughter-in-law, Mary Young Livingston.

In the late 50's John migrated to New York and started working in construction and on weekends he had his own mobile fruit stand business. He was a hard worker, kind-hearted, and giving man. In New York he met Elizabeth Thomas Livingston and out of this union they had nine children. Brenda Livingston Thornton, Debra L. Follins, Morris, Regina, Rosalind, Renee, Joseph, Jeffrey (Deceased), and Timothy Livingston. This union also has two sons-in-law, Allan Thornton, Sr and Craig Follins. In total 56 grandchildren, 89 great-grandchildren, and 13 great-great grandchildren.

Although the king is gone after 90 years in body, his spirit will live on and we will cherish him in our memories.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.
