Obituary

Mary Jane Hunt, also known in her family as “Tootsie,” was born on January 9, 1930 to the late William and Susan Hall in Sumpter, South Carolina. She was the youngest of two children. If you saw Mary you saw her mom. The two were inseparable.

On September 1, 1956 in New York she married Charles Edward Hunt. She was known for her cooking like her collard greens and fried chicken. She had five children: Kenneth Hunt, Derrick Hunt (wife Susan), late Susan Hunt, Adriane Jones (husband Earl) and Tasha Hunt. She was able to enjoy eleven grandchildren: Derrick, Christopher, Crystal, Kenneth, Shanta, Devon, Jasmine, Jessica, Keith, Ashley and Natasha. And she was privileged to have eight great grandchildren: Justin, Imani, Sade, Makinsey, Destini, Zaniah, Tiffany and TJ. Also, she shared the love with her sister of her four nephews: Ronald, Phillip, late Matthew and late Thomas.

She dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized this dedication by water baptism on July 30, 1958. From this day forward, serving Jehovah and raising her children in the truth became a pivotal part in her life. She loved to entertain the friends. You could have always find a member of the Bethel family in her home. She enjoyed card games with a serving of fried fish. Once her children got older she began to regular pioneer for many years. She will be remembered for her love and devotion to Jehovah, family, and friends.
