Obituary

Born in Brooklyn, New York on March 26, 1963, Lureatha Boykin aka Ann, was the first born to the late Gloria and Curry Level. She was called home to be with the Lord on September 13, 2017.

Lureatha attended Jefferson High School where she met her teenage sweetheart, Joseph Williams. Together, they had four children: Tameka, Christopher, Joseph and Shaquana.

Lureatha loved her family and friends and was very protective of those she loved. She lived and worked in Brooklyn, NY as a Child Care Provider for many years. She ran her own pick-up and drop-off service to and from school for children before she retired in 2014. If you ask anyone about Ann they would say she loved kids. She always went out to celebrate birthdays and other social events. She loved music and to laugh and dance. She would send a "Good Morning" text message to loved ones to get them started for the day. She was a living embodiment of love and positivity. Lureatha will be loved and missed by not only her family and friends but also by the many children she helped raise.

Lureatha Boykin leaves to mourn her grieving sisters: Yolanda Level, Melody Richey and Elisa Carlies; brother, Alphonso Level; daughters: Tameka Level and Shaquana Boykin; sons: Christopher Boykin and Joseph Boykin; three grandchildren: Vashon Level, Chriselle Boykin and Christian Boykin; aunts: Thelma Robertson and Carry Hall; uncle: Alphonso Boykin, Jr. She also leaves eight nieces and seven nephews, godchildren, along with many other cousins, family and friends that will miss her dearly.

Life is full of pain and sorrow,
You're here today,
Gone tomorrow.
I close my eyes as I wipe a tear.
I just keep wishing you were still here.
I will hold all the memories deep in my heart.
Through these memories we'll never part.

I close my eyes as I wipe a tear.
I just keep wishing this pain would disappear.
I didn't get the chance to say my last good-bye.
I just didn't think you could ever die.

I close my eyes as I wipe a tear.
All of your love I will always hold near.
In my heart and mind I will never be alone.
When my time comes...
I will meet you in heaven!
WE LOVE AND MISS YOU!

RIP Auntie Ann!!
