Delores P. Trent & Arthur D. Trent

Delores was born on April 7, 1939 in Norfolk, Virginia born to the late Lizzie and George V. Mitchell. Delores was the second born out of ten brothers and sisters. Delores attended Newark Public Schools.

Arthur was born on April 15, 1936 to the late Ruth and Arthur Trent, Cumberland, Virginia. Arthur was the oldest of their children, Arthur, Courtney, Charles & Frank. Arthur attended Cumberland Schools in Cumberland, Virginia until he graduated. He was a man with such a kind spirit, a funny guy who was always telling jokes when you was down. He will be the one to brighten your day.

At a young age Arthur D. Trent and Delores P. Trent met and married on their special month of April, and they fell in love and they remained married for 62 years. Within their marriage Delores and Arthur had 10 children. Arthur was a great husband and provider. He was a labor of many jobs construction & grounds keeper, a man of many trades. Delores was a nurturing and loving caregiver. In 1967, she was an influential part of a political team under Mayor Gibson. Her role under Mr. Gibson was to help keep people off the streets and stop the looting going on in the streets of Newark. Delores was a political activist and apart of the Cory Booker campaign which led him to become part of Newark politics. She was a known diva and a true fashionista. She was known for her beautiful hats and fur coats, you never caught not matching from head to toe. Apart from her love of politics, Delores also loved to cook, listen to her favorite singer Patti LaBelle, and be the best wife to her husband.

Delores (also known by Lolo to her friends and family) and Arthur "Artie" leaves to cherish: their six children, Arthur David, Elizabeth Thomas, Darlene, Terry, Larry and Jerry; one son-in-law, Donald Thomas; three brothers, Michael, Paul and Gregory; siblings, Courtney, Frank, Bestrice, Charles and Brenda; a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Preceded in death by their parents, her siblings: George, Evelyn, Eddie, Dorothy, John Lee, Nathaniel, her children: Frank and Tyrone.

When I'm Gone

*When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile.
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.
Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done.
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun.
Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way.
Remember I have fought some hard battles,
And won, ere the close of the day.
Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay,
And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west.
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.*

Acknowledgement

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.*

The family would like to acknowledge her special Great niece Akeera Mitchell. Special thanks to all family and friends for attending.
