Obituary

Carolyn Lorraine Spellman Moore went to the Lord on Saturday, September 30, 2017. Carolyn was born on June 16, 1946 in Manhattan, New York. She was the oldest of five children of Ulysses Spellman and Elaine Morris.

Carolyn attended Benjamin Franklin High School and graduated in 1965 and shortly thereafter married John F. Moore, Jr. From this union, they had four children, one son, John F. Moore III, and three daughters, Lorraine S. Moore, Gwendolyn S. Moore and Joyce R. Washington.

After her children were grown, she achieved her Associates Degree from Touro College. She worked at Hope Day Nursery in Harlem, New York as an assistant teacher for many years and later retired. She also was a member of St. Luke Baptist Church.

Carolyn leaves behind: four children; five grandsons, John IV, Bilyin, Trevor, Byrin and Isaac; two sisters, Janice Drakes and Elaine Spellman; a sister-in-law, Rhonda Spellman; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Ulysses and Elaine Spellman, and her two brothers, Ulysses and Reginald Spellman.

To Those I Love

*To those I love and those that love me,
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone
So grieve for a while for me if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."*
