Obituary

Willie Williams, Jr. was born to Willie and Diantha Williams on September 16, 1958 at Harlem Hospital. On October 2, 2017, he was welcomed into the gates of Heaven.

Willie attended John F. Kennedy High School, where he obtained a football scholarship to attend Johnson C. Smith University. Willie had a heart of gold. He loved helping others. He attended PAL as a boxing instructor. He helped fellow boxers achieve a dream he himself had when he was a Golden Glove contender. Willie held his own when he fought the "Legendary Mitch Green".

Willie worked many years and became the number one seller for Pepsi Cola Company. His smile and friendly personality, along with his work ethics gained him his own independent soda route. Which he ran successfully.

Willie has had many achievements yet his greatest reward of all came after the union between him and Diane Williams. That reward was his children. He loved them dearly.

Willie leaves to mourn: his parents, Willie and Diantha Williams; brother, Curtis Williams; sister, Debra Williams-Whaley; brother-in-law, Kirk Whaley; his children, Tanisha, Tyra, Willie, Jr. and Windell Williams; his four grandchildren; aunt, Lou Williams; uncle, Kermit Collins; six nieces and seven nephews; four great nieces and four nephews; a host of cousins; his Greater Eternal Baptist Church family; his loving fiancée, Priscilla; and stepson, Ulysses.

Willie's big heart, fun and loving ways, contagious smile and love for the Lord will be remembered and live on through his family and friends.

I'm Free

*I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.*

*A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
