Obituary

Samuel Joseph Jackson, the ninth child of 15 children to the late Wilson & Ella Jackson was born in Richmond, Virginia.

Sam was educated in Richmond Public Schools. He moved to New York City in the 1950's. During this time he served in the United States Army for several years which he received an Honorable Discharge. He then was employed in civil service jobs including MTA Transit and the United States Postal Service.

In the 1960's Sam married Florence. During this union, a son, Douglas was born. As time passed, he moved to the Crown Heights section of Brooklyn where he resided in the same building for more than forty years. Sam was a people person who loved to make you laugh. Laughter was one of the many qualities he had and it will surely be missed.

Sam leaves four siblings; James, Horace, Mert, and Betty, brother-in-law; Chris, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. The family would like to acknowledge his home attendant; Yvonne, friends; Randy, Curtis, Simson, Tasha, and Sup. and great nephews: Say and Shawn.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
