Now That I Am Gone

Now that I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love and you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness
I thank you for the love each of you have shown,
But now it's time to travel on alone.

So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on,
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll hear
All my love around you soft and clear.

And when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile
And welcome you home.

We commend Janie's spirit to our God and Father though we are grieved by this separation. Our faith is not shaken. For we know that "As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is around them that love her."

"Let not your heart be troubled, Ye Believe in God, Believe also in me." - St. John 14:1
