Reflections of Life

Kenneth "Kenny" Harris affectionately called Kahlil, was born in New Bern, North Carolina on July 5, 1954 to the late Charles and Odessa Harris. He departed this life on Wednesday, September 18, 2017.

The family moved to Paterson, New Jersey, when Kenny was young. He was educated in the North Carolina and Paterson Public School System. For many years he worked at the Handy Hut in Clifton, New Jersey and Roman and Sandals in Passaic, New Jersey.

He attended church with his parents and at an early age accepted Christ as his savior. Kenny was loving and caring, made people laugh and was always the life of the party. He loved sports, football, basketball and especially boxing. Kenny was a boxer in his youth. He was called The Handy Man by the kids because he loved fixing things, especially children's bikes, and "Fan Daddy" by his grandchildren.

Kenny was a supporter of the New Jersey lottery. He loved his scratch offs. We also remember Kenny as a lover of music, dancing and singing, especially to Sha-Ron.

Kenny was preceded in death by his brother Charles "Chucky" Harris.

Kenny leaves to cherish loving memories; his children Taliah and Kahwayne and Step-son Ivin; his Aunt, Auntie Tank Marie James; son-in-law Okechukw Okorieaugu; granddaughters Talajah, and Ja-dai, grandsons, Trashon, Travon, Hezeki, Jeremih, and Adrian; sisters Charlene Harris and Odessa James, The love of his Life for over forty years; Sha-Ron Dye; godson Dashawn McClain; friend Kevin Goodman, loving nieces and nephew and a host of friends and relatives.

God Saw.....

God saw the road was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed those eyes,
And whispered "Peace Be Thine".
The weary hours, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights all passed;
The ever patient worn out frame has Found sweet rest at last.
