

Celebration of Homegoing For
Tyrone Coleman

Sunrise
July 30, 1959

Sunset
October 23, 2017

Saturday, October 28, 2017 - 11:00 a.m.

CAGGIANO MEMORIAL HOME

62 Grove Street • Montclair, NJ 07042

Reverend Michael A. Spivey, Officiating

Order of Service

Music Processional

Introduction

Final Family Viewing

Prayer of Comfort

Music

Old Testament and New Testament Scripture Reading

Tribute Family and Friends (2 minutes please)

Reading of the Obituary

Eulogy

Committal

Recessional

Obituary

Tyrone Coleman was born in Montclair, New Jersey on July 30, 1959 to Juanita Coleman and the late William E. Coleman. Tyrone departed his life alongside his daughter and mother on October 23, 2017 after a long battle with cancer.

Tyrone graduated from the Montclair School System and was affectionately known as “Blood” and “Buddy Gee” to his family and Montclair Community. He enjoyed listening to jazz and old school music. Tyrone was the life of the party always looking to have a good time, singing, dancing and partying with his family and friends. In the late 1990’s Tyrone moved to North Carolina, where he found a job with Bath and Body works and lived amongst friends and family. After the birth of his 1st granddaughter in 2008 he remained in NJ for 1 year. In 2015, Tyrone decided it was time to come back home, as he was eager to do so much more and enjoy the rest of his life with his immediate family.

If you know Tyrone, you know his sayings were “...real hard” and “crazy as hell”.

Tyrone leaves to mourn his mother, Juanita Coleman of East Orange; two daughters, Talisa Coleman of Montclair and Ta’Nasia Joyner of North Carolina; three sisters, Gail Adams and Linda Henderson of East Orange and Lolita Rouse of Bloomfield; three brothers, Russell Walton, Alvin and Andre Coleman all of East Orange; two granddaughters, Talia and Taylin Harris; two brothers-in-law, Gary Henderson of Montclair and Jeffrey Rouse of Bloomfield; three aunts, Sarah and Mary Coleman and Joyce Underdue; a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Serenity Prayer

*GOD, grant me the Serenity
to accept the things I cannot change,
Courage to change the things I can, and the Wisdom to know the difference.*

*Living one day at a time;
Enjoying one moment at a time;
Accepting hardship as the pathway to peace.
Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it. Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His Will;
That I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever in the next.*

Amen

-Author unknown

Acknowledgement

The family would like to thank you for your kind words and condolences at this time.

Service entrusted to:

Caggiano Memorial

