Dinah Venable peacefully transitioned from labor to reward on October 20, 2017 at Tennova Healthcare in Clarksville, Tennessee. She was a lifelong resident of Jersey City, New Jersey.

Mrs. Venable received her education through the Jersey City Public School system. She was employed with Saint Francis Community Health System. Upon retiring, Dinah relocated to Clarksville, Tennessee where she served her community as a volunteer for numerous support organizations that provided family enrichment and feeding the homeless.

Dinah precedes in death her parents, Alonzo and Arie Mae Ashley husband, Harry Thomas Venable Jr., brother, Alonzo Ashley Jr., sister, Cora Jean Ashley, stepson, Darnell Redd and grandson, Anthony Herring.

She leaves to cherish her memory siblings Marzella Ashley, Essie Lawson, Lewis Ashley and Margaret Ashley, a loving aunt Marzella Searles, children Arie Venable, Bonita Brown, Renaldo Venable, Schandelle Allen, and step-son Keith Redd, grandchildren Levar Herring, Hakiem Herring, Taneah Allen, and Brittany Allen, three great grandchildren Jazmin Smith, Devin Herring and Desmond Herring, two great great grandchildren Antonio and Nevaeh Smith, two sons-in-law Willie Quarles and Charles Allen, goddaughter Judy Sisson and a host of nieces, nephews, cousin, and friends.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you." Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
