

In Loving Memory of Reginald James Monroe

Sunrise: January 22, 1959

Sunset: September 27, 2017

Obituary

Reginald J. Monroe was born out of holy matrimony to Richard S. Monroe, Sr. and Margeret Monroe, the youngest of five sons, Richard, Jr., Ronald, Robert, Ramon and himself.

Having attended public school in New York City, he graduated from Dewitt Clinton High School. He later entered the U.S. Army where he served with honors. Having gone to institutions of higher education he entered Civil Service for the City of New York where he worked as the Commissioner Assistant for the Department of Homeless Services for 37 years until he departed this life.

He leaves to mourn his brothers, Ronald and Robert; and a host of beloved family members, friends and associates.

*"To all those that I have known, loved, cherished and respected,
until we meet again."*

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,

I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
