Obituary

Wayne Brown was born on July 30, 1961 at Saint John's Hospital in Brooklyn, New York. He was the seventh born of Rosemarie Brown and the late Thomas E. Brown Sr. (DOC).

Wayne was known to make everyone around him laugh and have a good time. Wayne was a maintenance worker and worked on many homes on the Fulton street area for homeowner, Bob Pollock. Wayne was a family person to all blood and non-blood related. He especially loved his son, Wayne Jr. and his son's siblings, Devante Fulton Mcmillan, Kenyetta and Kenneth Mcmillan, Shawtay Mcmillan and Shawdo Mcmillan dearly.

Wayne leaves to mourn his memory: His mother, Mrs. Rosemarie Brown; his son, Wayne Brown Jr; his six brothers, Twin-Warren Brown, Thomas Brown Jr., Gregory Brown, Tyrone Brown, Anthony Brown, Dennis Brown and his wife, Jolin Brown of Petersburg, VA; his sister, Chantal Brown of Petersburg, VA; a dear and loyal friend and mother of his child, Crystal Mcmillan; a dear friend, Perry Boykins.

He was preceded in death by: his Father, Thomas (Doc) Brown; his sister, Marcella (Salla) Brown; his nephew, Tarran Brown; his best friend, Marvin Rhem.

Also left to mourn his memory: A host of cousins, nieces, nephews, his Aunt Joyce, and many, many, many friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,

I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
