Obituary

Walter Mae McNeil, lovingly known as Mae, passed away peacefully on October 27, 2017. Mae was born on May 30, 1928 to Walter Merritt and Beatrice Wright in Rome, Georgia. Mae was the oldest of three children. Mae received her primary education in the Georgia school system. Mae eventually moved to New Jersey and married the late Lester Broady. She had no children from this union, but she helped raise her nieces and nephews as if they were her own.

One of Mae's many talents was sewing. She soon turned that love of sewing into her career. Mae was quite the entertainer. She was known for her many cookouts! Her home was the place to be for a holiday barbeque. Mae loved her family.

Mae leaves to mourn her passing, nephew, Ronald Howell, nieces, Talisha Brown, Myesha and Latrina Anthony and Twonee Spruill; lifelong friends, Beatrice Morrison and Whilemina Register; two very special cousins, Gwendolyn McClamb and Bonita Wright; cherished friend, Martha Brown who was very helpful to her during her sickness; and a host of other nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and friends.

Mae will be remembered as a bright shining light to all who had the pleasure of knowing and loving her.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
