Obituary

Patricia Ann Craig was the first born of Marie Craig and John Thomas Artis in Newark, NJ on July 9, 1963 at Martland Hospital in Newark, NJ.

Patricia was known as “Trish Ann” by her family and close friends. She was a loving and caring individual whom welcomed everyone with open arms. She loved her family dearly and enjoyed being around them.

Patricia had such a beautiful soul. She grew up in Newark, NJ and was educated through the Newark public school system. She was a very smart and intelligent person, where she was skipped several times in elementary and went straight to high school.

Patricia loved to listen to all types of music. You couldn't tell her she wasn't a professional singer. She was the entertainer of the family. Family and friends enjoyed listening and watching Patricia and her fiancé Steven sing duets together. But if she was not around her family she would rather listen to music at home by herself.

Patricia was very family oriented and always reminded her family that she will always have their back thick and thin. She was deeply loved by everyone who came encounter with her presence.

Patricia Ann Craig departed this life on November 3, 2017 at the age of 54 in Summit Ridge Rehabilitation Center, after being sick for months. She was a strong fighter and a true warrior who held on for as long as she could.

Patricia was a predeceased of brother Henry Craig.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her two sons, Henry and Michael Martinez; fiancé, Steven Hines; mother, Marie Craig; father, John Thomas Artis; two sisters, Shirley Craig, and Roxanne (husband Craig Green); five brothers, Johnny Craig, Edward Craig, Dewayne Craig, Nathaniel Craig and Shareek (wife Sharon Craig); favorite cousin Lena; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, close friend Nicole Day and other great friends.

*There comes a time for all of us when we must say good-bye
But faith, hope, love, and trust can never die.
Although the curtain falls given us a cause to grieve?
The future's fairer than the past, if only we believe.*

*God saw the road was getting rough, the hills were hard to climb,
She gently closed her eyes, and she reached peace of mind.
Her weary hours, her days of pain, her weary nights have passed,
Her weary patience worn out of frame has found sweet rest at last.
She left behind a memory, a sorrow too great to be held,
But to us who loved and knew her, her memory will never grow old.*
